

André Haag appointed Chief Financial Officer of de Volksbank

Upon nomination of the Supervisory Board of de Volksbank, shareholder NLFI has appointed André Haag as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of de Volksbank as from 1 August 2022. The Works Council has rendered advice on - and supports - the appointment. The supervisory authorities have approved the appointment of André Haag, whose term of office will run up to and including the General Meeting of Shareholders of 2026.

André Haag has a proven track record as a finance director at both a Dutch bank and an international financial institution. André Haag will join from Triodos Bank N.V., where he was a member of the Executive Board as CFO. From 2016 to 2019 he was a member of the Management Board and CFO at Deutsche Holdings (Luxembourg) S.à r.l. Since 2011 André Haag held various senior positions at Deutsche Bank in Luxembourg and Germany, notably as Country CFO Luxembourg and Director in Regional Finance Germany. André Haag started his career at IBM Financial Consulting and subsequently fulfilled several roles at PA Consulting Group and Ernst & Young.

Gerard van Olphen, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of de Volksbank: "The Supervisory Board is pleased with the appointment of André Haag as CFO and member of the Executive Committee of the bank. As an experienced CFO, including at a bank with a sustainable and social profile, André Haag pre-eminently has the right background and qualities to contribute to the successful realisation of de Volksbank's strategy."

Martijn Gribnau, Chairman of the Executive Committee of de Volksbank: "I am pleased André Haag is joining de Volksbank. His vision and experience are a valuable addition to the Executive Committee and I look forward to working together on the further implementation of our strategy."
