

PricewaterhouseCoopers appointed as external auditor for de Volksbank

On 17 October 2024, on the recommendation of the Supervisory Board of de Volksbank, shareholder NLFI appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) as chartered external auditor for de Volksbank for the years 2026 up to and including 2029.

European and Dutch legislation requires de Volksbank to choose a new external auditor as the 10 year appointment term with the same auditor is coming to an end. The nomination for appointment of PwC to the shareholder took place in this context. The nomination and appointment were preceded by a careful selection process supervised by the Audit Committee of the Supervisory Board.

PwC will act as de Volksbank's new external auditor starting with the period in 2026. De Volksbank's current external auditor is Ernst & Young Accountants (EY).
